

Brandon Hood

Director of Training, Quality, Compliance, and Ethics

Education

- > Associates of Science from South-West Illinois College

Key Areas of Expertise

- > Develop and implement quality management systems for government contracts
- > Conduct risk assessments and identify potential ethical and compliance issues
- > Expertise in ethics and compliance principles and policies
- > Monitor contract performance and ensure adherence to contractual terms and conditions
- > Government program and performance management
- > Contract planning and improvement
- > Budget management
- > Curriculum development
- > Vulnerability and risk assessment surveys

Relevant Experience

- > Assistant Program Manager, overseeing the execution of federal contracts supporting numerous government agencies
- > Managing quality assurance and quality control of federal contracts
- > Lead Instructor on numerous federal training contracts

As Director of Training, Quality, Ethics, and Compliance, Mr. Hood serves as the company's guardian of integrity and excellence. With a keen eye for detail, a deep understanding of regulations, and a steadfast commitment to the ethical execution of our services and treatment of our employees, Mr. Hood ensures that every decision and every action reflects ARMADA's highest values.

Mr. Brandon Hood has over 24 years of experience in tactical and security related operations and training. He is motivated team player and skilled tactician through his experience in the U.S. Marine Corps and many years as a government security and training contractor. He has over 10 years of OCONUS deployment time in countries such as Iraq, Afghanistan, Indonesia, Yemen, and Israel. Mr. Hood professionally and ethically oversaw for over two years, training of a high risk and national security while supporting our Afghan and other international partners.

Mr. Hood is currently the Assistant Program Manager for several Government contracts, as well as managing the QA/QC program for other federal contracts. He serves as the lead instructor for firearms, tactics, and vehicle dynamics and manages a team of instructors. In this role, Mr. Hood coordinates all training, including venues, equipment, instructor placement, student rotations, safety and client relations. Mr. Hood also maintains proficiency by directly supporting training for vehicle dynamics (I-III), hard surface, off-road techniques as well as an assortment of motorcade and convoy operations as well as numerous weapons systems. Mr. Hood oversees training primarily focused on individual and team skill development for military and law enforcement as well as executive protection details for federal and various government clients. His instruction of vehicle dynamics includes both.

Brandon Hood

Director of Training, Quality, Compliance, and Ethics

Prior to joining ARMADA, Mr. Hood served in the U.S. Marine Corps as an Infantry Rifleman and Squad Leader. He later became a member of several government contract organizations providing Personal Security Protection Details as a Designated Marksman, Lead Advance Agent, and protection team member in support of U.S. Embassy projects in high threat environments.

Mr. Hood has an Associates of Science degree from South-West Illinois college, and as an aviation enthusiast he holds a private pilot's license and is pursuing a Bachelor of Science in Aviation from Utah Valley University.