Mr. David Sayre is a retired U.S. Air Force Master Sergeant with more than 20 years of experience in numerous leadership and management positions, logistics and contingency operations, project management, safety and environmental, and human resources. Prior to his retirement, he was the Program Manager for the U.S. Air Force Non-commissioned Officer Academy. In this position, David and his team of instructional designers developed curriculum and advised teaching strategies for a 25-day leadership and management course for 10 globally located campuses, 150 faculty members, and approximately 7,500 students per year. David also served a four-year tour as a classroom instructor for the Air Force Airman Leadership School, accumulating more than 3,500 teaching hours. Throughout his 20-year career in the Air Force, David was stationed in Washington State, South Korea, Germany, Oklahoma, and Alabama. He deployed seven times to Qatar, Kuwait, Iraq, and Turkey as a petroleum logistics specialist and logistics operations manager in support of various major combat operations.

Mr. Sayre joined the ARMADA team in the summer of 2021 as the Training Manager. In this position, his primary role is the administration of the ARMADA Training Academy's SECURE Network – an online learning platform that provides mobile learning solutions for professionals serving in the areas of Security, Law Enforcement, Court, Universal Tactics, Resiliency, and Education. David works with subject matter experts to develop in-demand training concepts and topics into educationally sound online courses for the SECURE Network. David also assists the executive team with various ARMADA operations that fall within his areas of expertise.
